

Klinton W. Alexander

615.251.6668
kalexande@wyattfirm.com
Nashville office

Klinton W. Alexander is a member of the Governmental Affairs & Regulated Industries Service Team. He concentrates his practice in the areas of commercial litigation, government affairs and international law. He has represented numerous clients in federal and state court litigation and in arbitrations before various governing bodies, including the American Arbitration Association and the International Chamber of Commerce. He also counsels clients on international trade issues, including customs, export controls, trade sanctions, the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, antidumping and countervailing duties, antiboycott measures, WTO and NAFTA rules and procedures, and business immigration (visa) matters.

Professional Experience

- Trade Fellow in the Office of WTO Affairs at the U.S. Trade Representative's Office in Washington, directed the WTO Trade Policy Review Program, S. Trade Representative to the World Customs Organization in Brussels for the First Session of the Technical Committee on Rules of Origin
- Special Assistant to the President of Yale University for External Relations
- Assistant to former U.S. Secretary of Defense, Dr. Harold Brown, at the Center for Strategic and International Studies
- Currently teaches courses in International Law and Economics at Vanderbilt University

Education

1999 – J.D., University of Virginia School of Law; Editor-in-Chief of the Virginia Journal of International Law

1997 – Ph.D (International Relations), Cambridge University

1991 – B.A. (History), Yale University

Publications

Mr. Alexander is the author of several articles and book chapters.

Admissions

- District of Columbia
- U.S. Court of Appeals, Sixth Circuit
- Tennessee
- Kentucky

Languages

- Conversant in French