Meredith Eason is a member of the Firm's Litigation & Dispute Resolution Service Team. She concentrates her practice in the areas of commercial litigation and employment law.

Representative Matters

- Represented employers in individual, consolidated and class action litigation involving employment discrimination, wage and hour law, non-competition and non-solicitation agreements and other disputes.
- Resolved commercial litigation matters for large corporations through summary judgment motions, jury trials, bench trials, mediations, arbitration and settlement negotiations.
- Drafted three briefs filed in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit and successfully argued before the Tennessee Court of Appeals in Nashville, Tennessee.

Professional Experience

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Eason practiced law with a Nashville civil litigation firm where she focused her practice in premises liability defense, insurance defense and insurance subrogation.

In law school, she interned with Select Medical Corporation, the Davidson County District Attorney General's Office and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco & Firearms, Nashville Field Division.
